2010 Adelaide Cabaret Festival hit with Festival Fever

Adelaide has been in Festival mode over the past couple of weeks, with the Festival and Fringe the talk of the town and it's not over yet! No sooner has the last ticket stub been thrown away than audiences are looking to the Adelaide Cabaret Festival to spend their hard earned cash and have a great night out with friends.

After the success of the first Variety Gala in 2009, audiences have snapped up tickets for this year's Variety Gala after it went on sale in the Adelaide Festival Centre's 2010 season brochure, with the event now sold out. The Variety Gala will open the 2010 Adelaide Cabaret Festival on 11 June.

This is just the start of what's in store for the 2010 program and everyone is encouraged to go online when the program is launched on 14 April at 7.30pm to view for themselves the Adelaide Festival Centre's 10th Adelaide Cabaret Festival program, snap up the best seats and see what delights Artistic Director David Campbell has in store for cabaret audiences.

Tickets are currently on sale for two other shows, Ennio Marchetto, the one-man-living-cartoon, who will be making his Australian debut transforming himself using paper costumes into well-known artists within split seconds and John Waters who will be performing a night of French Cabaret in BREL, singing the songs of the great French Chanson singer-songwriter, Jacques Brel.

The full Adelaide Cabaret Festival program will be available online on 14 April at www.adelaidecabaretfestival.com and bookings can be made through the link on the website or through BASS on 131 246. Adelaide Cabaret Festival brochures will be available at BASS outlets on 15 April and in mailboxes on 21 April.

To be added to the mailing list log onto www.adelaidecabaretfestival.com

Look forward to seeing you there!
