HOT ~~FLUSH!~~ FLASH! MENOPAUSE THE MUSICAL KEEPS PLAYING... AND PLAYING... AND PLAYING... WILL IT EVER END?

The answer is yes - it does have an end date - but that end date is more than one and a half months away. Menopause The Musical has just extended its Adelaide run again, and will now officially close on Sunday 20 May after a staggering 20 week season in Adelaide. The show must close, so it can move back to Melbourne for a second run.

Almost 60,000 tickets have been sold so far to this hugely popular show. It has been received tremendously well by Adelaide audiences and critics alike.

Menopause The Musical Executive Producer, Jim McPherson, says, "Adelaide audiences have really embraced this show starting with record-breaking pre-season sales and continuing right throughout the season. We are thrilled that it has been received so well!"

*"Don't miss Menopause - this Change is better than a holiday... ****."*
Sunday Mail

"Here come the red hot divas - four glorious women of a certain age, bodies comfortably pre-used and their performance talents in a radiant prime."
The Advertiser
